

Code of Conduct Ten Commandments

For the enjoyment and safety of all in the Lodges.

1	Consider and respect others as you would like them to consider and respect you. Encourage children in your care to do likewise.
2	Do all your lodge jobs, including cleaning your room and ensuite. This includes jobs that children in your care do not perform.
3	Co-operate with the lodge manager/leader and discuss problems with them.
4	Help to keep living and working areas of the lodge clean, tidy and usable by others. This applies particularly to the living room, kitchen, toilets, ski room and drying room. It involves early cleaning of used nappies, or their daily removal from the lodge, by the parents concerned.
5	Remember that you are sharing the lodge with others, and many of the things that you do are likely to affect them in some way. Please refrain from talking loudly in the sleeping areas of the lodge. In particular, consider others present before you turn music on, up or off, in the living room.
6	Refrain from making a noise late at night, or earlier if requested by the lodge leader. Consider others who may still be sleeping if you arise early. Lodge quiet times are between 11pm and 7am.
7	Take precautions for your safety and that of children in your care, especially in winter. This includes notifying your arrival and departure from the lodge, leaving a record of planned ski tours, and clarifying with children their daily skiing plans and procedures for contacting you and access to the lodge (ie door codes, doorbell).
8	Help to keep your Club's property in good condition. This includes covering the Club's pillows with your own (two) pillow slips, and using your own sheets or sleeping bags with the Club's doonas or blankets. It includes storing skis and snowboards in the ski room and leaving ski boots in the ski room or drying room. It includes not wearing outdoor shoes inside the Lodges. It includes reporting breakages or defects, and where practicable helping to fix them.
9	Use the bedroom allocated to you by the Booking Officer, unless altered by the Lodge Manager or Leader.
10	Do not smoke or use drugs in the lodge. Do not throw your cigarette butts into the snow.
